Formation.

Abacus is adept at establishing, managing and administering effective corporate structures to realise commercial objectives.

We assist businesses operating in a wide variety of sectors by establishing companies and special purpose vehicles for trading, mergers and acquisitions, private equity investment, asset holding, restructuring, international expansion and funds.

Whether as standalone entities or as part of a more complex structure, we steer clients through the complexities of legal and regulatory compliance, corporate governance and operations to ensure the process runs smoothly and efficiently.

Often the choice of where a company is incorporated is germane and as our services are always personalised, Abacus is well versed in formation in a variety of international jurisdictions.

We work with clients to prepare a business for listing, a management buyout, voluntary dissolution as well as liquidation when a company naturally reaches the end of its life cycle.

Abacus' clients appreciate the focus of our team as it drives the most efficient and productive routes to achieve their objectives.

Director services.

Abacus provides individual and corporate directors to deliver professional and effective day-to-day management.

Our directors are experienced and knowledgeable individuals. They add value, oversight, effective decision making and governance to the boards they sit on.

They are senior members of the team who contribute to strategic planning, policy development and how a business navigates its life cycle.

They understand the responsibility of their position and work hard to acquire a thorough and comprehensive understanding of an entity and its business to enable them to provide their considered, independent judgement.

We keep up to date with regulatory changes and have the technical skills to optimise business processes, participate effectively and promote best working practices. In addition, they are supported by a team of corporate professionals, accountants, lawyers, tax specialists and compliance officers.

Our directors work to execute successful corporate strategies with their shrewd and discerning approach to problem solving.

Tax.

Abacus keeps up to date with the evolving regulatory landscape to ensure tax strategies remain efficient and effective.

We assist with submissions, reporting, disclosures, enquiries, compilation of associated documentation, FATCA and CRS. All our services are tailored to fit each client's specific corporate needs.

We pride ourselves on being agile in responding and communicating the implications of change for the structures we manage. Our depth of understanding means we are able to ensure the tax effects of complex, multi-jurisdictional transactions are fully understood.

Having an experienced in-house team gives us the technical oversight to uphold the compliance responsibilities of the structures we administer and give practical assistance to ease regulatory burden.

We have worked hard to establish a collaborative working relationship with the tax authorities and the team has the expertise to effectively engage with them to ensure the best outcomes.

Our international clients benefit from our acumen in mitigating risk in complex, commercial, multi-jurisdictional scenarios.
